

Diocese of Leicester
Shaped by God

life in abundance?

Four conversations in Lent exploring faith and contemporary issues in our society.

Experts from the national stage, alongside regional spokespeople and Christian thinkers will meet together and invite us into a public conversation chaired by Bishop Tim.

'At the heart of the hoped-for future, which comes from the God of love, is the flourishing of individuals, communities, and our world globe'

Prof Miroslav Wolf

Tues 6 March Education

Baroness Estelle Morris of Yardley
Former Secretary of State for Education

Prof Dominic Shellard
Vice Chancellor Demontfort University

Tues 13 March Justice

Sir Hugh Orde
President of the Chief Association of Police Officers and former Chief Constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland

Simon Cole
Chief Constable of Leicestershire Police

Tues 20 March Health

Prof David Haslam
President of the British Medical Association

TBA

Tues 27 March Welfare

Baron Victor Adebowale of Thornes
Chief Executive of Turning Point

Canon Paul Hackwood
Chair of the Church Urban Fund

All weeks 7.00-9.00pm

The Grand Hall, St Martins House, 7 Peacock Lane, Leicester, LE1 5PZ

See www.leicester.anglican.org/lent-lectures-2012
for more details

St Martins House
conference
centre