

THE LINK TRICHY LEICESTERSHIRE

The 'Churches Together in Leicestershire' link with the Trichy Diocese dates from 2002. Its aim is to develop mutual support through a dynamic relationship based on prayer and shared experiences. For example through the Indian example, we are challenged to be more ecumenical.

Learning to sing psalm 133 in Tamil.

Sharing fellowship with people on the tea estates.

This woman asked for a bible. She had just learnt to read.

The Trichy Diocese provides a home for these women, who would otherwise be destitute.

Visiting one of many schools run by the Trichy Diocese.

