

Parish Transition Officer (maternity cover)

Part time: 0.7FTE (24.5 hours), maternity cover of up to 1 year
Salary: £42,500 pro-rata

Are you a highly skilled and experienced process facilitator with a desire to enable the formation of Minster Communities across Leicester and Leicestershire?

Can you form and lead teams of volunteers, are you energised by training and supporting others?

Are you a collaborative colleague, excellent communicator and relationship-builder?

...then we want to hear from you, and consider your application to work within our team as we enable churches to form new Minster Communities across our diocese.

You will play a crucial role taking lead responsibility for training and supporting a team of facilitators (including staff, consultants and volunteers) who will deliver the Minster Community formation process across the diocese. You will facilitate organisational process within the ethos of Christian discernment and work closely with the Shaped By God Together Programme Team to track progress, identify risks and issues and contribute to problem-solving.

This post is funded through a grant from the Strategic Mission and Ministry Investment Board.

For an informal conversation about the role contact Stuart Burns, Director of Parish Transition and Ministry Development at stuart.burns@leicestercofe.org

We encourage applications from UK Minority Ethnic / Global Majority Heritage candidates, who are currently under-represented in the organisation.

Closing date: 14th August
Interview date: 30th August
